Nine, eighteen, and twenty-seven, thirty-six and forty-five,
Fifty-four and sixty-three, seventy-two and eighty-one.
Nine of them, round the sun, Make their orbits one by one.
Nine of them round the sun, And counting them is fun.
Nine, eighteen, and twenty-seven,
Thirty-six and forty-five, Fifty-four and sixty-three,
Seventy-two and eighty-one.
