

Adding Doubles + 1

The dou - bles plus one more no long - er make us sore; we use what we've learned be-fore to fig-ure out the an - swer! A yel-low four and a lit-tle pink three were smushed to make a tan one.
 Three and four make sev'n, Three plus three, one more;
 Four plus four less one — it al - ways e - quals sev - en.

Chords: G, C, D, G, Em, Am, D, G, C, G, D, G, C, D, G, Em, Am, D, G

When five and four moved in next door, they made a happy nine.
 Five plus four makes nine; four plus four, one more
 Five plus five less one, it makes a light green nine bar.

A purple six and a light blue five together make eleven 'leven is five plus six; five plus five, one more
 Six plus six less one—a long blue bar and a green one.

A long tan seven and a violet six, when added make thirteen
 Seven plus six, thirteen; six plus six, one more
 Two sevens minus one will always equal thirteen.